

MSHS Clubs Co-Curricular 19-20

Alfred Society-Mr. Almaraz (room 201): Interested in comic-books, video-games, cartoons or even if you know what a d20 is if all else fails “Ask Jarvis”.

Academic Decathlon-Leslie Rouse (room 508) : top of your class or just want to be academically challenged, a fun competitive group to be part of.

Art Club- Sheila Kinkade/Katie Howden (room 504): whether you take art or you just love to draw and explore your imagination with art shows and museums.

AVID/College Club- Andrews (room 412): students who are enrolled in AVID or just want to be part of receiving the tools to attend a 4 year college.

Boys & Girls Block S- Mark Lohuis (PE Locker Rooms): varsity athletes who want to be involved in and participate in both on and off campus activities.

Band/Colorguard- Rossette (Band Room): gain instrumental experience and understanding through performances that use music, dance and objects

Campus Awakening-Kathleen Kennedy (room 407: collaboration of students coming together to celebrate their faith.

Cheer- Samantha Elam (Girls PE): perform at multiple Stallion events and lead the Stallion Storm in cheers during athletic games.

Choir- Harabedian (Portable 7): three different performing choirs to choose from and showcase skills in performances both local and out of state.

CSF- Weber(room 405): California Scholastic Federation emphasizes high standards of service, scholarship and citizenship.

Criminology Club-George (room 306): increase member's awareness and involvement in the areas of Criminology and Public Safety

Fashion Club-Araceli Ramirez/Gloria Vander Laan (room 115): enhance your fashion, make-up, style & so much more while participating in school activities.

Educators Rising - Janine Bergdahl (room 307): come work with kids to make a difference in their life and develop the skills to become a passionate teacher.

Gender/Sexuality Alliance: Amanda Foster (room 908): be a part of a club that is welcoming of any student regardless of sexual orientation and gender identity.

Hiking Club- James Carter (room 701): experience the great outdoors, enjoy nature, and learn about our environment by hiking the trails of California.

Intercultural Club- embrace the traditions of indigenous students by providing opportunity to learn, share their culture and develop a positive self identity.

FBLA- Davene Munoz (room 301): Future Business Leaders of America serves as a great preparation for careers in business through competitions K- Club- learn about all aspects of Korean culture including K-pop, K-drama, food, customs, etc.

FFA- Julie Luxon/Crystal Luera (room 704): Future Farmers of America building leadership skills and provide opportunity to enhance their agriculture background.

Key Club-Mrs. Salinas (room 402): self-development framework of campus & community service.

Floral Design-Brianna Ellis (room 507):learn all elements of floral and plant care and creative design. As well as the art of balloon bouquet making.

Link Crew-Jamie Garcia (room 210): enhance communication skills, build community and share ideas to help freshmen succeed.

Guitar Club-Kelly (room 802): enhance your skills or just learn the guitar. Discover hidden talents, attend concerts, and even compete.

Madera Students for Life- Mr. Rozance (room 105): work to save lives threatened by induced abortion, euthanasia and destruction of human embryos for research.

Health Occupations Students of America (HOSA)- Mary Pietrowski (room 302)-promotes career opportunities in the health industry and local community.

Math Club- Richard Montoya (room 509): explores mathematics & develops an understanding of real world mathematical connections

Home Economics Related Occupation (HERO) & Stallion Café - promotes career opportunities & knowledge through events & service.

Opportunity Club- Hermela Moultrie (room 412/P14) all students are welcome to be part of this club that offers activities for any students to be involved in.

Leadership- Justin Potter (Portable 3): learn organizational skills, teamwork & have fun in planning all of school sponsored activities- rallies, dances, etc...

Mock Trial- Amanda Elliot-Ester (room 904): learn the secrets of being a lawyer and dive into the complexity of our judicial system.

Skills USA- Mrs. George (room 306)- develop leadership abilities through participation in educational, vocation, civic, recreational, and social activities

Slam Poetry- Mr. Pettitt (room 410): a venue to express yourself, influence the love of writing and promote the beauty and creativity of poetry.

Spanish Club- Maria Mujica/Anayeli Montoya (room 413): Come celebrate the beautiful Spanish Language and culture. Open to any and every student.

Theatre Company- Ginger Latimer (Drama Room): presents two local productions (1 musical) each year and travels to various colleges and festivals to compete

Science Club- Amanda Foster (room 904): celebrate the awesome world of science.

Yearbook- Valerie Shelton (Portable 11): allows students to record the events of the year, learn new technology and create everlasting memories all in one book.

Table Tennis-Mike Horn (room 503): building skills & teamwork in tackling the difficult sport of ping pong.

CLASS CLUBS- a club for your very own class. Students meet with other classmates and plan many important events for MSHS

Class of 2020- Mr. Mena and Katie Howden (room 507)

Class of 2021- Lucia Santana (Downstairs Academic A)

Class of 2022- Castella Rios (room 910/116)

Class of 2023- Anayali Montoya (room 403)