Madera Unified to Host Groundbreaking Ceremony for the New State-of-the-Art Concurrent Enrollment Middle School

Madera, Calif. - Madera Unified will host a Groundbreaking Ceremony for the new State-of-the-Art Concurrent Enrollment Middle School. The new middle school will be the only one of its kind in Madera and Fresno County. The school is set to officially open in 2020 which will focus on interdisciplinary work through the lens of Career Technical Education (CTE). The school will be organized around six career-themed labs.

- Agriculture
- Entrepreneurship
- Health
- Public Safety
- Manufacturing and Engineering
- Digital and Performing Arts

Students will receive some of their courses at their home schools and a portion of their programming at the new school. This will provide students with early exposure to Madera Unified’s award-winning CTE pathways.
