

JOHN J. PERSHING ELEMENTARY SCHOOL
Title I
MEETING MINUTES
October 14, 2014

Welcome-All members were introduced, administration, parents and school site council members.

Purpose of the Title I funds was explained- Funding from title I is provided to increase academic achievement in ELA and math and to supplement the school's existing instructional programs. Most of the professional development for this year is still devoted to common core.

Mr. Beakes explained allocation of funds: bases on the number of students who qualify for free/reduced price on meals on an annual basis. Over 90% of the students at Pershing are on the program. The funds are used for all students. Supplemental Educational Support (SES) tutoring program is funded through title I funds as well.

Pershing's Title I program-the various programs for school and parents were explained by Mr. Beakes.

Achievement Data for 2012-2013-Mr. Beakes explained the results of the CST and AYP and API. The results of Pershing's assessments were discussed. Pershing did not reach its AYP, we had 48.0% in ELA. In Math, Pershing did make AYP due to safe harbor. Mr. Beakes explained the goal of reaching 800 for API. Pershing is estimated to be at 792, this was a significant increase from the previous year. Pershing also reclassified 62 students to English Proficient this last year (2013-2014). At this point, the AYP is suspended.

-Title I Services for 2013-2014 Categorical Budget was explained: we had $167,684.00. The positions that were funded from this fund were delineated.

-Title I Services for 2014-2015 Categorical Budget was explained: we had $164,472.00. The change in positions that were funded from this fund was explained (only two positions were funded this year as opposed to the three from the year prior). Do to local control funding, additional staffing monies are being provided through district fund.

-Parent Opportunities at Pershing were presented in detail (the parental involvement policy was presented again-this policy is in the parent teacher handbook as well).

Mr. Beakes discussed the goals in our Single plan for Student Achievement. Parents may request Supplemental Educational Services (tutoring).

Meeting was adjourned at 4:18PM
